

EMID 903A Visitors to EMID Student Program Locations

Building Rules and Regulations

1. No person, other than a student of or authorized volunteer of this program, or employee of EMID or the district location, shall be permitted to enter or circulate in an student program space without first receiving permission from the administrator in charge and signing in using the EMID form 903B.

2. Such permission as described above shall be required only during the period when the program is in session and shall be for the purpose of preventing interruption of normal educational functions.

Permission shall not be required for anyone who is present in the program location for the following purposes only:

- a. Attending any meeting on the premises of any organization, which has been authorized by the school administration.
 - b. Voting or aiding in any legally called election.
 - c. Attending any authorized athletic, recreational, or cultural event.
3. Permission granted here may be limited as to time or purpose and may be revoked by the administrator granting the permission or by the Executive Director at any time if in his/her opinion such visit is no longer in harmony with the proper conduct of the schools.
